The Cincinnati Times-Star is an ardent supporter of President Harding. In the course of an editorial it says: "Mr. Harding took no part in the negotiations of the Disarmament Conference except to welcome the delegates and to wish them Godspeed." Guess whether this is a slam or a compliment.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Fallsburg, Ky., Feb. 13, 1922.
Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God in His infinite wisdom to take from our midst our brother, Lewis Nunley, who departed this life on February 2, 1922.

Therefore, Be it Resolved, That in the death of brother Nunley this lodge has lost a worthy member; his church a faithful member; the family a loving father; the wife a devoted husband and the community a useful citizen.

Be it further Resolved, That this lodge extends to the bereaved widow and children its sincere and heartfelt sympathy.

Bro. Nunley was an honest man, was loved and respected by all who knew him.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be placed on the Minutes of the lodge, a copy to his widow and a copy to the Big Sandy News for publication.

There's a memory dear that is dimmed by a tear

When a friend passes on from our sight

There's an evergreen spray on the silent way

There's a beacon that shines thru the night.

W. M. SAVAGE,
JAMES CASEY,
Committee.

In Memory.

To the officers and members of Fallsburg Lodge No. 285, I. O. O. F. The undersigned committee respectfully submits the following in obedience to your direction:

That, whereas in the death of our brother, B. F. Carter, Fallsburg lodge has sustained the loss of a valued member, the family has suffered a loss of a true and faithful father, the community and county an honored and loyal citizen.

Brother Carter has been a resident of this (Lawrence) county for more than 70 years.

It is hereby resolved that Fallsburg Lodge No. 285 extends to the bereaved family of brother Carter our sympathy in their great loss, realizing the great blessing of having lived a long and useful life, remembering, "The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away."

We do not know the exact age of brother Carter. He was something like 75 years old.

Resolved further, That this resolution be entered of record on the Minutes of this lodge, one copy forwarded to the family of the deceased, one copy sent to the Big Sandy News for publication.

There's the record of soul written on life's scroll,

That will live when the spirit has fled.

There's a place set apart in the depth of the heart,

Filled with love for our own cherished dead.

W. M. SAVAGE,
JAMES CASEY,
Committee.

The roads are in a terrible condition now, but that doesn't keep Chestnut Grove people from attending church at Lick Log. We are very glad to have them with us. The revival will last till after Sunday.

A BLONDE.

SATANTA, KANSAS

Dear Editor:—What I want to speak about is the fellow that writes from London, Ohio, and signs his name "Rambler." He said the girls must mind what they say about the "Rose" in Kansas. If they were to come back very soon they would fade. Now he wrote like he means two of us or more. He said if "they" were to come back. Now "they" means two or more. Of course the girls around Dennis don't mean a dozen of us. I suppose they just want "John" only. Now, I want "Rambler" to know that Roses in Kansas don't fade when they go back to Kentucky. The Rose in Kansas will not fade by going back to Kentucky for he isn't going back very soon.

I suppose you all have seen or heard about the ever bearing strawberries, so the Rose in Kansas is something like that. He is an ever blooming Rose and never fades.

He said the girl that gets him will have a Rose in the winter time as same as summer. Now "Rambler" mustn't think hard of me for writing this because it is the plain truth.

I suppose the girls around Dennis would love to see John's smiling face back to Kentucky again, but he won't fade when he goes back.

Guess "Rambler" thinks by this time that Rose in Kansas will not fade.

You girls around Dennis must write again and let the old boy hear from you all.

We are having some summer weather now, but not any rain. The big wheat crops are getting very dry and dusty.

Let us hear from London, Ohio, again.
